1.2) FAQ:
Q:What defines a commercial project?
Any project, including but not limited to, that is for sale to the general public and generates revenue is considered commercial.

Q:Can I edit the plugin(s) for my own project(s)?
Yes. You can edit the plugin(s) solely for your own projects.

Q:Can I share my edits of the plugin(s) for others to use in their project(s)?
No. You can never share edits under any circumstances, regardless of which licence you have. This should ensure to keep the original author of the plugin(s) integrity intact.

Q:Do I need to leave credit for the author of the plugin(s)?
No. Credit is not required but is available optionally.

Q:If at a later date the licence changes for new customers do I still keep my lifetime commercial use privileges?
Yes. If in the licence it clearly states you can use the plugin(s) in more than one project, or for life, then you can never lose that licence. The only time a licence can change afterwards is if you break the agreement in some way.
